Introduction

"The Moor Park Way', a code of conduct that encapsulates the school's ethos. Students express strongly how safe they feel in school. They are also extremely confident that school will not tolerate negative behaviour. The school's shared values have a very positive effect on their sense of fairness and respect for others."

Ofsted Report February 2011

Statement of intent

Moor Park High School and Sixth Form's Behaviour for Learning Policy aims to develop a pupil's sense of responsibility and independence for their own actions, and to ensure that they do not affect the education of others due to poor behaviour.

Each member of staff has responsibility for upholding standards of behaviour in school, both within their classroom and around the school site, as well as implementing this policy both fairly and consistently.

The school's primary concern is the safety, wellbeing and education of all pupils; actions taken in cases of bad behaviour are with the intention of upholding their wellbeing and academic progress, as well as fulfilling our safeguarding responsibilities.

This policy will be abided by staff members and pupils at all times, and reviewed at regular intervals

2. Definition

The phrase 'behaviour for learning' conceptualises the following three relationships experienced by a pupil:

- Their relationship with themselves, e.g. their self-confidence as a learner
- Their relationship with others, e.g. how they socially interact
- Their relationship with the curriculum, e.g. how best they learn

In order to foster a positive learning environment in name of school, these relationships must be developed and supported.

Most social, emotional and behavioural skills are learned, with behaviour for learning being a theoretical approach to the learning experience.

Rather than focussing on unwanted behaviours, the behaviour for learning approach puts value on positive behaviours, which enable and maximise learning.

This approach helps pupils understand the behavioural skills they need, what the teacher wants them to do, and why this will help them to learn.

3. The Principles

In order to enable effective teaching and learning to take place, good behaviour in all aspects of school life is necessary. It seeks to create a caring, learning environment in the school by:

- Promoting good behaviour and discipline
- Promoting self esteem, self discipline, proper regard for authority and positive relationships based on mutual respect
- Ensuring fairness of treatment for all. All members of the school community must be treated inclusively and be free from any form of discrimination or prejudice – whether it be racial, ethnic, gender, sexual orientation, religious or age-based.
- Creating and maintaining an atmosphere and ethos of tolerance, equality, diversity, respect, understanding, kindness and a sense of citizenship throughout the school community in everyday practice.
- Encouraging consistency of response to both positive and negative behaviour
- Promoting early intervention
- Providing a safe environment free from disruption, violence, bullying and any form of intimidation or harassment and one which promotes the values of caring, empathy, teamwork and coordination
- Encouraging a positive relationship with parents and carers to develop a shared approach to involve them in the implementation of the school's policy and associated procedures.

4. The Moor Park Way

The underlying principles of the school in determining the behaviour in the school community are outlined in the 'RIGHTS & RESPONSIBILITIES CHARTER' enshrined in 'THE MOOR PARK WAY'

- This acts as the Pupil Code of Conduct which forms the basis of accepted behaviour in the classroom and is based on respect and value for one another, emphasising the right of all pupils to learn and the right of all staff to teach.
- The Moor Park Way is the foundation of our school's culture and it summarises "the way we do things around here and the values we hold."

23. Classroom & Corridor Behaviour

One key way to establishing and maintaining a culture of excellent behaviour is through ensuring there are routines that teach pupils the correct way to behave. These routines are to be followed all of the time by staff to ensure consistency of practice and to support pupils in managing their behaviour and enhance their learning. These routines must not be changed or altered for any class at any time

Classroom Routines

At the start of every lesson the routines are as follows and staff must:

- Welcome pupils at the door
- Ensure pupils enter immediately in an orderly manner.
- Ensure pupil place all equipment (pen, pencil, ruler, books etc) on desk.
- Ensure bags and coats are be packed away (under the desk, on a hook or where the teacher had decided and informed pupils).
- Ensure planners are on the desks – opened on MPW and routines pages.
- Ensure pupils stand quietly behind their chair in the seating plan place.
- Greet pupils appropriately (2good morning” / “good afternoon”)
- Expect pupils to respond in an appropriate manner (as instructed) when greeted
- Instruct pupils to sit down (give them appropriate task etc)
- Take register in silence.
- Call out every pupil’s name and expect the response to be ‘Yes Miss/Sir’ (or as instructed).

During every lesson the expectations form pupils are as follows:

- Pupils will follow all instructions from all adults in the classroom at all times
- Pupils will speak to peers and adults in a pleasant and polite manner
- Pupils will complete all work to the best of their ability

Around the school staff will monitor behaviour and encourage pupils to:

- Walk on the left-hand side of the corridor
- Eat and drink in designated areas - no eating or drinking in corridors or classrooms

Dealing with disruptive behaviour in the classroom

Definition of disruption: “Disruptive behaviour is anything pupils do that causes the teacher to stop teaching the lesson”

If disruption occurs in a lesson your teacher will do 3 things:

1. REMINDER to ALL pupils:

- On the first incident of disruptive behaviour ALL pupils will be reminded that disruption to lessons is unacceptable
For example; “I have stopped my teaching because..... I am reminding you that this is unacceptable”

2. WARNING to ALL pupils:

- On the second incident of disruption ALL pupils are issued a warning
For example; “This is the second time I have stopped my teaching, you are all warned any pupil that disrupts from now will receive a consequences for their actions”

3. CONSEQUENCE to the pupil(s) that continue to disrupt:

- The next pupil(s) to disrupt are issued with a 1 hour detention (3.30-4.30) on the same day for incidents of disruption Periods 1-4 and the next day for incidents of disruption periods 5-6.
For example; “You have disrupted my lesson despite the reminders and warnings, your consequence is a one hour detention after school”
- It is the responsibility of the pupil to report to the detention room on the say the detention is issued. Pupils who fail to attend the detention, without discussion or permission from a member of staff will have further sanctions, including seclusion or exclusion applied.

4. REMOVE pupil from lesson via the “on-call” system

If the same or any other pupil further disrupts the lesson:

- The teacher to make a request for on-call.
- The pupil will be removed from lessons and parents will be contacted and a meeting will be arranged to discuss the matter. In some cases pupils may be put in isolation pending a meeting with parents.

24. The On-Call System

The On-Call system is to be used:

- As a last resort, to supplement normal disciplinary procedures in the school and where behaviour disrupts the teaching of a lesson
- Where health and safety of members of the school community is compromised
- Support staff and pupils on an immediate basis.
- To deal with a pupil who is sick or injured.

The On-Call System is not to be used:

- To remove a pupil as soon as they have done something wrong
- By staff to send messages around school
- Not be used to remove pupils who have not got the correct equipment
- For pupils with headaches or minor ailments or TLC - The best and only place for a child with a slight head or tummy ache is in the classroom by an open window.

Roles & Responsibilities

Class Teacher Responsibilities

- Follow above guidelines for dealing with disruptive behaviour use all other strategies before removing pupils
- Log the incident on the relevant incident form
- If the problem is persistent refer pupil to relevant Faculty Leader

Faculty Leader Responsibilities

- Support class teachers in managing behaviour of pupils in their class

On-Call Teacher Responsibilities

- Needs to complete the 'On-Call Log' as this information is used to track pupils removed from class

Behavioural Problems

Pupils removed via the on-call system for behaviour that disrupts teaching will be placed in seclusion and parents will be contacted for a meeting to discuss the incident. Pupils who are regularly removed via on-call for behaviour which disrupts teaching will face further sanctions which could include longer periods of seclusion, fixed term exclusion or even permanent exclusion

Health Problems

The on-call teacher must judge the severity of the situation and decide the best option, which can include:-

- Placing the child in the medical room and closely monitoring them. The school office MUST be informed when this is done. Pupils should not be left sitting in the entrance area. This is intended for guests and visitors only.
- Arranging for a first aider to assess the pupil if you feel it is urgent – the Office will have a list of appropriately trained staff

PLEASE NOTE:

- If a child is so ill that he/she cannot make their own way home, it is the responsibility of the parent / carer to make arrangements to come and collect the pupil otherwise the pupil must remain in the medical room.

- The school cannot administer any medication without parental permission
- The medical room must not be used for pupils temporarily removed from the classroom for discipline problems. The medical room is for injured or sick pupils only
